

A PUBLIC MEETING

OF THE RESIDENTS OF THE ABOVE PARISH WILL BE HELD

In the Central Infants' School, Manchester Road,
On Monday Evening next, at 7-30, to consider the question of a

PUBLIC MEMORIAL

May

Wed 27th May 5-6pm

FREE EVENT

Remembering the Fallen of Cheshire:

Cheshire War Memorials of the First World War

Why are some men commemorated on more than one memorial? Why do some places have several memorials and others none at all? Who paid for them? Why was a particular design chosen? This talk by Linda Clarke, our Local Studies Advisor will answer these questions with examples from around the county.

Cheshire Record Office, Duke Street, Chester

Booking Details

Online: www.cheshirearchivesandlocalstudies.eventbrite.co.uk

Telephone: 01244 972559